

Tibet Day Documentaries and Concert

Thursday, December 3

7:00 - 8:45 PM

Presentation Theater, USF

2350 Turk St.

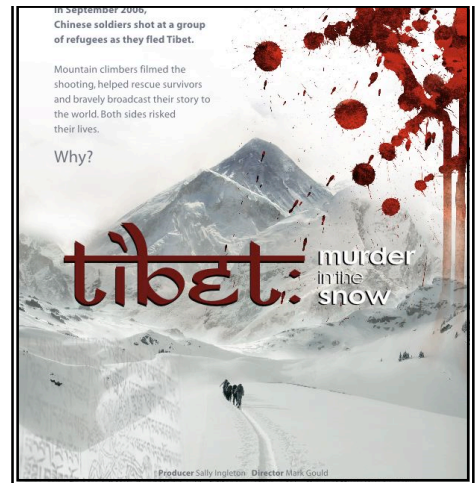

(near Turk & Masonic)

$3.00 suggested donation *

Journey to Nangchen introduces us to a group of nuns who persevere through great hardships to carry on the tradition of their spiritual practice. Part pilgrimage, travel adventure, and dharma experience, this short film provides a fascinating glimpse into the lives of women committed to Tibetan (Vajrayana) Buddhism.

* All money raised will be be donated to the family of young nun killed while fleeing Tibet

Tibet: Murder in the Snow tells of young Tibetans who risk their lives each year to illegally cross the rugged Himalaya Mountains in an attempt to see their spiritual leader, the Dalai Lama, or attend school in India. In an incident that shocked the world, a teenage Tibetan nun was killed when Chinese border police opened fire on a group of pilgrims as they fled Tibet over the infamous Nangpa Pass.

Songs by Pemsi

Penpa Tsering, nicknamed Pemsi, is a popular Tibetan singer. He will be joined by Tenzin Paldon, and Sonam and Tashi Dolma from the group "Sodro." (Program subject to change.)

Sponsored by the USF Asian Studies Degree Program and Bay Area Friends of Tibet

For more information, please contact John Nelson
Director of Asian Studies at nelsonj@usfca.edu